

In Memoriam of Georg Heinig

The shocking news was heard in the May 10th 2005. A famous writer named Georg Heinig was found dead in his apartment in Kuwait. He was dead because of the heart attack. The heart attack finally got him killed. Georg Heinig died in the age of 57. He was known as the excellent writers and authors. For some people, he was considered as one of the greatest mentors that they all ever had.

Nobody ever thought that Georg Heinig would die that way. Somehow, he was look so fine when some of his colleagues met him. The sudden heart attack was turned into the sudden death for him. He was known as one of the top experts in the structured matrices field. Actually, his expertness is still being needed by the world, but somehow, God decided the other way for him.

Some of his colleagues have decided to write a kind of note or journal about Georg Heinig in Memoriam. This is one way for the colleagues to show their respect to the late Georg Heinig.

People would miss his writing works on the Integral Equations and Operator Theory journal. So far, he is still considered as one of the best structured matrices experts ever lived in the world.